LAST WEEK

LAST WEEK'S SPEAKER: DEBBIE DOOLEY Atlanta Tea Party Patriots talked to us about some of Washington's latest developments. Regarding the Health Care bill, she said the Freedom Caucus was too rigid in their demands and although negotiations were intense each time they were given what they asked for they wanted more. However, there's hope and further negotiations will take place. Debbie said the infrastructure spending needs to be increased, the tax reform needs to take place. She also said that the Koch brothers, who don't like Mr. Trump, are working against him at every turn. The real Washington problem is the lobbyists, and Debbie said they see everything ending for them because Trump is not the usual politician, he just gets stuff down and doesn't, pussyfoot around. As we have seen events take place rapidly in Washington, so new news will be available before you read this bulletin! Stay tuned....
